

Letter from Pollok & Mauro to Alexander Graham Bell, January 8, 1897

Anthony Pollok. Philip Mauro. POLLOK & MAURO, Counsellors at Law, 620 F Street,
N. W. Cable Address: " Pollok—Washington. " WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 8th, 1897 189
Alexander Graham Bell, Esq., Dear Sir:

We are sorry our binder mixed his labels, and that we did not observe it before delivering the volumes. We now return them correctly marked.

The charge of $10 about which you inquire is as follows:

February 1, 1890, Investigation for Joyce patent and copy — $5.00

February 6th— Same, phonograph patents and copies — $5.00

These matters, we believe, had something to do with stereotyping.

Very truly yours, Pollok Mauro
